FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Landrum Human Resources Companies ranks among 25 Best Places to Work in America.

PENSACOLA, FL—June 25, 2007—The Great Place to Work® Institute (GPTW) and the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) has named Landrum Human Resource Companies, Inc. among the “Best Small & Medium Companies to Work for in America” for the third consecutive year.

The list was announced on June 25 before an audience of more than 15,000 at SHRM’s 59th Annual Conference & Exposition in Las Vegas.

The results were based on employees’ responses to a detailed questionnaire about the organizations’ workplace culture, including credibility, respect, fairness, pride and camaraderie. To be considered for the award, at least 40 percent of a company’s employees had to complete the survey.

This annual list, now in its fourth year, ranks the top 25 small and top 25 medium-sized companies in America that use effective people management strategies to develop successful organizations with highly productive and satisfied workforces.

“Being voted among the ‘Best Small & Medium Companies to Work for in America’ for three years in a row demonstrates that our employees are truly excited about what they are doing and where we are going as a company,” said H. Britt Landrum, Jr., founder and CEO of Landrum Human Resource Companies. “The employees get 100 percent of the credit because their actions have created an atmosphere that makes us proud of where we work.”

Headquartered in Pensacola, Fla., Landrum Human Resources Companies, Inc., provides human resource services to businesses, industries, and non-profit organizations throughout the southeastern United States. Its divisions include Landrum Staffing, Landrum Consulting and Landrum Professional. H. Britt Landrum, Jr. started the company with a $25 job placement ad in 1970. Today, the Landrum Companies provide services to over 1,000 clients and 10,000 employees.

In June 2007, Landrum was honored by Florida’s Governor Charlie Crist with the Governor’s Sterling Award, Florida’s most prestigious honor for performance excellence.

Profiles of Landrum and other winners are featured the July 2007 issue of HR Magazine, the SHRM’s flagship publication with a circulation of 210,000 (www.shrm.org/hrmagazine). The winning organizations will also be listed on the GPTW web site at www.greatplacetowork.com.

SHRM, the world’s largest association devoted to human resource management, represents more than 200,000 members. The Great Place to Work Institute is a San Francisco based research and management consultancy which also produces Fortune’s “100 Best Companies to Work for”, which recognizes employers with 1,000 or more employees.
